NEW BOAT LANDING.

We are informed that the Forest City and Oregon boat landing is now two miles southwest of Forest City, on the opposite side of Rush Island. In order to reach the landing, it is necessary to cross the old channel at or near Forest City, across which a good ferry will soon be established. This will make shipping a little inconvenient until our railroad is completed.

Messrs. S. D. & H. W. Smith have just issued a work which has long been expected by the musical community, and of which thousands of copies were ordered before the plates were commenced.

The book is entitled "The American Organ, or Organist's Parlor Companion," and as a school of instruction for reed instruments is the most complete system ever published, while the pieces, of which there are a large number, are in the most tasteful style, being all selected from the great masters. The work has been edited with great care, by an organist of one of the largest churches in Boston.

ITEMS GENERALLY.

See the annual advertisement of the Holt County Sentinel, in this edition.

Mr. Houston, (Universalist,) will preach at the Court House, this (Friday) evening, at 7 1-2 o'clock.

A heavy rain fell on the night of the 25th inst., which will be of immense advantage to crops.

Some additions have been made to the Holt County Directory, to which attention is called. Attention is also directed to the advertisement of D. Ransom & Co., in another column.

An important notice to holders of Union Military Bonds, from Col. Bishop, State Treasurer, will be found in this issue.

Mr. STEPHEN BLANCHARD handed us a limb bearing a quantity of Siberian Crap-Apples. They are said to make excellent preserves.

A COLLISION.

A collision occurred in town on Saturday last, between a Mr. JACOB WHITMER, and one SAMUEL FOSTER, the cause of which, summed up, is about as follows:

The parties live about two miles east of Oregon, on adjoining farms; and it appears that the dividing line of fence had been built by both parties. Some difficulty arose in regard to a few rails, which FOSTER charged WHITMER with having appropriated to his own use. A few warm words passed between them, and they separated; but the affair was not to end here. FOSTER, who is of a quarrelsome disposition, on Wednesday of last week, got a shot gun and placed it in the hands of his boy, when they both started for WHITMER's house, intent on giving him battle. On arriving at the fence, near the house, the boy and gun were secreted in the weeds near by, and Mr. WHITMER called out to the fence. FOSTER commenced the attack by accusing WHITMER of stealing his rails, when the latter made at him, FOSTER running. Again the attack was made, when WHITMER picked up a corn knife with the intention of putting a stop to FOSTER's abuse, when the latter immediately called into requisition the shot gun, without, however, using it. A few words passed between them, when FOSTER left the scene of action.

On Saturday last, as stated above, they met again in town, and upon sight a "hot and skilful" encounter took place. They were parted however, before any serious damage was done to either, arrested, and taken before Justice EVANS, who, upon hearing the evidence, fined the parties $2 each, and costs.

HORACE COOPER, City Reg.

OREGON, Mo., Aug. 30, 1867.

MR. EDITOR: I notice in your last issue a short but exceedingly mendacious correspondence from "Mound City," in which the Post Master at Oregon is charged with permitting mail matter for Forest City and points south of Oregon to pass northward, much to the mortification of the non-resident pedagogues, who, over the nomme de plume of "Mound City," would have us believe him to have some sort of authorization to look after the politics and postal affairs of this upper country.

It is true, Mr. Pedagogue, that one package of the Holt County Sentinel, directed to Forest City, went north some two months ago. It may also be true (?) that some fifteen or twenty letters for the same place are lying on "Pedagogue's" desk, but if so, will he be so good as to inform us, first, by what authority they came there, and what he has done with them, as it is certain they have never been returned through this office to their destination?

That errors will occasionally occur in looking over large quantities of mail matter is to be expected, and that it sometimes occurs at Mound City even, we have evidence almost every day at this office.

In regard to the political part of Pedagogue's epistle, we have only to challenge a comparison of records, and if the gentleman can show as clear a page, he will find that even the most ultra radicals of Holt county will not find fault with him.

OREGON P. M.

NOTICE TO UNION MILITARY BONDHOLDERS.

STATE TREASURER'S OFFICE, City of Jeff. Mo., Aug. 15, 1867.

Union Military Bonds of all dates will continue to be received at this office for redemption from day to day until all are presented and paid.

Interest on all presented before the 6th of November, 1867, will be computed and paid to the 7th of August, 1867.

Unpaid Union Military Bonds will cease to bear interest on and after the 6th of November, 1867.

The State now having the money for the payment of these bonds exclusively, idle in her treasury, the said date, (November 6th, 1867,) has been fixed upon as the limit to which they may bear interest, in justice to herself and all her creditors.

All concerned are directed to take notice hereof. Very respectfully,
WM. BISHOP, State Treasurer.

A terrible railroad casualty occurred at Bray Head, Wicklow county, Ireland. The express train from Dublin for Wicklow, when at the above named locality ran off the track and eight passenger coaches were precipitated into the sea. The railroad at that point runs along the summit of high bluffs. Loss of life frightful—only one person in the whole train, a man named Morris, escaped alive.

SUCCESS UPON MERIT.—If there is an instance upon the records of our country where an article of American manufacture has made its way to universal favor solely upon its own merits and without extraneous aid, it is that of the Best Chemical Saleratus. It has only to be sold in one place, and it is demanded in another; and so it has gone on increasing in favor until the products of the extensive Chemical Works of D. B. De Land & Co., at Fairport, Monroe County, N. Y., are now immense.

This article is made only at these works by a process known only to the proprietors, and is better for all purposes than Soda. Try it.

DEATH FROM THE BITE OF A MULE.—The Boonville (Mo.) Eagle says, that a Mr. Ashman, of that county, had a diseased mule upon his premises recently, which he attempted to drench by pouring medicine down its throat, and his fingers were slightly bitten by the animal during the operation. The saliva entered his blood, causing the most intense suffering, from which no efforts could relieve him. He died on the following day in the greatest agony—a raving maniac!
